This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

National Champion

THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

THE last of the thirty-four National championships staged at the Newport Casino, served as a fitting climax to the long and illustrious series and takes its place in tennis history as the crowning sensation of a season of sensations.

The event was looked forward to as probably an anticlimax to the greatest of international meetings held shortly previous. The world's leading player, Maurice Evans McLoughlin, was regarded as the certain winner and there seemed to be little to warrant much enthusiasm over the event.

As a matter of fact the tourney set a high water mark in the history of the National championship for management, standard of play and thrilling finish, for the final round saw the playing through titlist, the world famous "Comet," beaten fairly and squarely and in straight sets by his international teammate, Richard Norris Williams, 2nd, in one of the most sensational contests on record.

The Cambridge lad and Harvard captain became the "super" player, rising to dizzy heights of skill and defeating his many-time conqueror on merit. It is fair to say that McLaughlin, splendidly as he played in that match, was not the same player who had triumphed over Brookes and Wilding. The match was to him an anticlimax to his real task of the season and he showed the effects of a mental and psychological letdown, but this statement is not made to detract an iota from Williams' wonderful performance for on the day of their meeting, the latter's game was well nigh perfect. For three sets he played without wavering or faltering, even for a moment, as he has played in streaks before,—an unbeatable game irresistible in attack finished to a degree, splendidly conceived and notably executed.

The event was started on August 24 with a comparatively small entry list, numbering 138, and was concluded on September 1.

The management was under the personal direction of President Wrenn throughout, and this, the weather and courts, left nothing to be desired. Partly on account of the war and partly because the title was apparently in no doubt, the galleries were rather smaller than usual, but no less brilliant, and they were treated to an increased number of attractions, many important matches being staged in the afternoon.

The entry list was strong and representative and contained a powerful California contingent who added much to the interest in the play.

McLoughlin and Williams occupied opposite halves in the draw which practically assured their meeting in the ultimate round, as in 1913, and the other leading contestants were well scattered which resulted in spirited matches in every round.

How the stars fared until the field had been eliminated to the final pair is disclosed by the following brief review.

The coming champion's path to the finals brought him against William Johnston (who had eliminated Bull in the opening) in the second round, and the Californian put up a spirited battle taking the only set lost by his conqueror. Dabney was Williams' next victim of note, the international substitute, Behr, was defeated in the sixth round in brilliant fashion, and another Californian, Fottrell, in the semi-finals, Williams winning the first set with difficulty owing to his rival's splendid service, and then romping through the remaining two.

McLoughlin made short work of Irving Wright, his first real opponent, but dropped a set to Griffin, the latter playing a clever game and taking full advantage of his famous opponent's let-up, and went into the finals by defeating his old rival Clothier in a masterly manner.

Fottrell made a splendid showing, beating Niles after a grand battle of services and the worn-out Touchard in easy fashion.

The last named was a wreck after two consecutive five-set battles royal against Whitney and Inman, both filled with extra game sets. Inman had reached the fifth round by defeating H. C. Johnson in a similar heart-breaking contest.

Behr dropped a set to LeRoy whose famous drives were deadly for a time and was forced to five wonderful sets by Murray in one of the most thrilling matches of the event.

Ex-Champion Clothier was at his best throughout, starting with the almost inconceivable defeat of R. D. Little in three love sets and then beating Beekman, Washburn and W. F. Johnson, decisively. Johnson's chief victory was over T. R. Pell, the chop stroke artist being in top form. Griffin had an easy path down to his Waterloo, but played splendid tennis against McLoughlin.

The closing round beggars description. Williams' sustained attack was so impetuous, that even the world-conquering McLoughlin could not break through it. The winner served and drove with terrific speed throughout and his errors were wonderfully few,—for him—and his volleying was wonderful to behold. Moreover, he was surer overhead than usual and this combination proved too good for even the Master McLoughlin to break up in spite of his dogged determination to the very end. Perhaps the deciding factor was the winner's astonishing service which traveled so fast that his speedy rival was aced repeatedly, and his ability for once to play McLoughlin's delivery for points. These facts combined with a slight increase in the departing champion's errors, for he seemed to lack his usual perfect control of the ball and to lose confidence accordingly, turned the trick, but the battle was one of a lifetime to watch.

PRELIMINARY NATIONAL DOUBLES

THE preliminary contest to name the National Doubles challengers, held at the Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest, Ill., on August 4 and 5, was won by George M. Church and Dean Mathey, an Eastern team representing the West, and their victory, although clean cut, came as a distinct surprise since the East was represented by Behr, the internationalist, and Pell. These two teams met in the finals, the former having vanquished the Southern title holders, I. C. Wright and J. B. Adoue, Jr., and the latter the Pacific Coast champions, Wm. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin, on the opening day.

The victory of the West over the South was a straight set affair, but the East vs. Pacific Coast was a most bitterly fought and spectacular five-set match filled with wonderful tennis, the former winning after trailing two sets to one.

The finals took four sets of brilliant tennis but the remarkable teamwork of the younger pair, Church and Mathey, turned the tide in their favor in a great battle for the net.

The summary:

Semi-Final Round: West (Church and Mathey) vs. South (Wright and Adoue), won by West, 6-4, 6-1, 6-2; East (Pell and Behr) vs. Pacific Coast (Johnston and Griffin), won by East, 4-6, 6-2, 1-6, 7-5, 6-3.

Final Round: West vs. East, won by West (G. M. Church and Dean Mathey), 6-3, 6-4, 4-6, 7-5.

National Doubles Champions

NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

STAGED as usual in conjunction with the Singles championship, at the Casino, Newport, on Tuesday, August 25, the National Doubles Championship resulted in a disappointingly easy victory for the title-holders, Thomas C. Bundy and Maurice E. McLoughlin, and it being their third consecutive win, the challenge and Casino Gold Cups became their property thereby.

The youthful challengers, Easterners by residence but representing the middle West, George M. Church and Dean Mathey, were unable to accomplish more than making the play interesting in spots and failed to win a set.

Both were extremely nervous at the outset and below their real ability as a result, but as the match progressed, Church displayed excellent ground covering and wonderful overhead work, and Mathey was aggressive in streaks. The challengers as usual elected to play Bundy, but he, fresh from the Internationals, was fully equal to his task, and with "the Comet" to administer the coup de grace, the match was quickly over.

Challenge Round

M. E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy (holders) defeated G. M. Church and Dean Mathey (challengers) 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Clay Court Champion

Clay Court Doubles Champions

NATIONAL CLAY COURT CHAMPIONSHIP

CLARENCE GRIFFIN of California is the new National Clay Court champion, having won the title through the default of a second Pacific Coast star, John Strachan, after winning the final round of the all-comers from still a third, Elia Fottrell. To complete the triumph for the far West, Nat Browne, the veteran player and brother of the National woman champion, and Claude Wayne won the Doubles from Griffin and Fottrell, and Miss Mary Browne captured the title in both Singles and Doubles of the ladies' event.

The fifth annual championship tournament was held at the Cincinnati Tennis Club during the week of July 11, and with an entry list of 102 in Singles was by all odds the best of the series, the management and social events being all that could be desired.

The semi-finals in Singles found four Californians pitted against each other and produced much excellent tennis and the final round went to five sets, three of which were great battles but these finished Fottrell physically and Griffin had little trouble annexing the remaining two.

Miss Browne outclassed the field in the women's Singles and with her usual partner, Mrs Williams, lost but one set.

THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

THE National rankings for the season of 1914 prepared by Messrs. Fred C. Inman, Walter L. Pate and W. Merrill Hall, all of New York was a monumental task, and although some criticism of the work of the committee has been voiced, in the main it has been accepted as a great labor well done.

Not in many years had the ranking committee had so hard a task to grapple with, owing to the unusual number of stars who played consistently throughout the season and the many upsets which resulted, culminating in the defeat of America's leading player, M. E. McLoughlin, by R. N. Williams, 2nd, for the Singles championship.

For the first time in history the winner of the Singles title was passed by in selecting the man to be placed first on the list, that honor being given as for two seasons past, to McLoughlin, on the strength of his whole year's record and the cutting of the Gordian knot brought little criticism.

Two of the stars of former years who had returned seriously to the contest, Karl Behr and F. B. Alexander, received high ratings, and this fact together with the presence of so large a number of exceptional players from the Pacific Coast, forced out of the first ten a number of names which have graced it for several years.

In accordance with instructions and following the precedent of several seasons back, one hundred names were ranked in Singles, the first ten numerically, and the balance in nine classes the players being arranged alphabetically. Ten teams are ranked in Doubles and twenty women players

THE DAVIS CUP MATCHES

AUSTRALASIA, through the prowess of her two mighty tennis warriors, Norman E. Brookes and Anthony F. Wilding, wrested the greatest International sports trophy in the world,—the Davis Cup—from the United States last August, after the country of its inception had held possession of it again for one scant year.

To the victors belong the spoils and no voice can be raised to deny that their marvelous victory over our strongest possible team of defenders was well earned as it was hard earned.

The final contest for the possession of the coveted bowl, which was staged at the grounds of the West Side Tennis Club on Long Island, N. Y., before the biggest and most representative gallery which ever watched a tennis battle—numbering over 12,000 people—was the hardest and closest fought and the most sensational in the history of the sport, and will never be forgotten by the fortunate ones who were among those present on August 13, 14 and 15.

Although America lost her title as Champion Nation, the then National champion emerged from the battle undisputedly the greatest player in the world, for the captain of the defenders, Maurice Evans McLoughlin, defeated on merit both of the great challengers, heretofore regarded as the world's best.

By good fortune the preliminary matches between the six challenging Nations, Australasia, Great Britain, Canada, Belgium, France and Germany, were practically completed before the outbreak of European hostilities, but the war cast somewhat of a damper on the final round, between Australasia and Great Britain, and the challenge matches.

The eventual winner came through by defeating with the loss of two matches (both by default to England) Canada, Germany and Great Britain, the last named nation having reached the finals by victories of Belgium and France with the loss of but one match.

The victory for Australasia in the challenge match was by the narrowest possible margin—three matches to two, and, as had been anticipated the loss of the Doubles contest on the second day of play was the factor which decided the battle against America.

PRELIMINARY CONTESTS
First Round
BRITISH ISLES vs BELGIUM

Great Britain started her upward climb toward the finals by defeating Belgium in five straight matches. Furthermore, the visitors from across the channel—the matches were played at Folkstone, Eng., on July 7, 8 and 9—were unable to capture a single set, although the Belgium captain succeeded in forcing one to deuce in his match with T. M. Mavrogordato.

Watson put up an unexpectedly stiff fight against Parke but the other matches were easy for the victors.

First Day: T. M. Mavrogordato (British Isles) defeated Paul de Borman (Belgium) 6-1, 6-3, 8-6; J. C. Parke (British Isles) defeated A. G. Watson (Belgium) 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

Second Day: H. Roper-Barrett and T. M. Mavrogordato (British Isles) defeated W. H. Duvivier and A. G. Watson (Belgium) 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

Third Day: J. C. Parke (British Isles) defeated Paul de Borman (Belgium) 6-4, 6-3, 6-0; T. M. Mavrogordato (British Isles) defeated A. G. Watson (Belgium) 6-1, 6-0, 6-3.

AUSTRALASIA vs. CANADA

In their first appearance in America, the coming conquerors, Brookes and Wilding, won their initial tie over Canada by a clean sweep, completely outclassing their opponents in Singles and Doubles as well.

The tie was played at the Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest, Ill., July 23, 24 and 25, and George T. Adee of the Davis Cup Committee was in charge.

As in all following contests Brookes and Wilding played both Doubles and Singles, and they defeated their opponents Schwengers and Powell setless.

First Day: Norman E. Brookes (Australasia) defeated B. P. Schwengers (Canada) 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, Anthony F. Wilding (Australasia) defeated R. B. Powell, (Canada) 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

Second Day: N. E. Brookes and A. F. Wilding, (Australasia) defeated B. P. Schwengers and R. B. Powell, (Canada) 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

Third Day: A. F. Wilding (Australasia) defeated B. P. Schwengers (Canada) 7-5, 6-3, 6-1. N. E. Brookes (Australasia) defeated R. B. Powell (Canada) 6-0, 6-1, 6-3.

Second Round
BRITISH ISLES vs FRANCE

Great Britain advanced another step by defeating France's formidable team, Max Decugis and Max Germot, four matches to one, the visitors winning the Doubles after four sets but failing to land one of the Singles matches, although Decugis succeeded in forcing Parke to five long and hard fought sets.

The matches were played at Wimbledom, July 11, 13 and 14, during an extremely hot spell which undoubtedly helped Mavrogordato to win over Germot, who is a more finished player, and with the score three to one against him even the brilliant Decugis fell a victim to the Little Britisher, the latter's steadiness throughout being commendable. Parke was picked to win both his matches and did, although forced to the extreme limit by Decugis on the first day, and the Frenchmen won the Doubles as anticipated.

OTTO FROITZHEIM

The great German player considered the best back court player in Europe. He played N. E. Brookes, the Australian, a hard fought five-set match in the Finals for the English Championship last year. He visited this country with Oscar Kreuzer as a partner to represent their country in the Davis Cup matches, after which they left to join their regiment in Germany.

First Day: M. T. Mavrogordato (British Isles) defeated Max Germot (France) 4-6, 7-5, 9-7, 6-2; J. C. Parke (British Isles) defeated Max Decugis (France) 6-2, 4-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Second Day: Max Decugis and Max Germot (France) defeated H. Roper-Barrett and T. M. Mavrogordato (British Isles) 6-3, 5-7, 7-5, 6-4.

Third Day: T. M. Mavrogordato (British Isles) defeated Max Decugis (France) 6-1, 7-5, 7-5, J. C. Parke (British Isles) defeated Max Germot (France) 8-6, 6-1, 6-3.

AUSTRALASIA vs GERMANY

The mighty Australasians continued their winning ways by defeating with the loss of only one set the strong German team, Oscar Kruzer, annexing that one from Captain Brookes on the third day.

The Alleghany Country Club at Sewickley Heights, a suburb of Pittsburg, staged the meeting which was held on August 6, 7, and 8.

Once again the great Antipodeans proved themselves complete masters of the situation, although the Teutons both put up a splendid exhibition of high class speedy tennis in Singles and gave their conquerors a real try out. The Doubles on the second day was more one-sided, the Australasians being supreme throughout, and the play of their adversaries extremely patchy.

First Day: A. F. Wilding, (Australasia) defeated Oscar Kreuzer (Germany) 6-2, 6-2, 6-4; N. E. Brookes, (Australasia) defeated Otto Froitzheim (Germany) 10-8, 6-1, 6-2.

Second Day: N. E. Brookes and A. F. Wilding (Australasia) defeated O. Froitzheim and O. Kreuzer (Germany) 6-1, 6-1, 6-2.

Third Day: A. F. Wilding (Australasia) defeated Otto Froitzheim (Germany) 6-3, 6-4, 6-2; N. E. Brookes (Australasia) defeated Oscar Kreuzer (Germany) 6-4, 6-2, 6-8, 6-2.

Final Round
AUSTRALASIA vs. BRITISH ISLES

The final round tie between the two great sections of the British empire was played at the historic Longwood Cricket Club in Boston on August 6, 7, and 8 and resulted in perhaps the most peculiar series of matches ever played in a Davis Cup tie. After winning the first two matches with surprising difficulty and the Doubles in a farcically easy manner, the two Australians, Brookes and Wildings scratched their other matches, giving the British Isles two cheap points and leaving the management, which had sold tickets for the season, completely in the lurch. Their wisdom was not questioned as the third day was a scorcher but not a few aspersions were cast on their sportsmanship.

On the opening day 4,000 spectators saw two exceptional matches. Wilding and Lowe started first and their match developed into a baseline duel furnishing few thrills for two sets both of which went to the Australasian. Then Lowe rallied remarkably and aided by the extreme heat soon had his famous opponent in serious straights.

Games alternated to 14 all, before the Englishman broke. Had he won this set, the match might well have been his. Quite otherwise was the Brookes-Parke contest. It furnished a thrilling five-set duel with victory ready to swing either way up to the end. Indeed, the British captain led 5-3 in the final set and looked like a sure and popular winner but there misfortune overtook him and he faltered—Brookes romping home a 7-5 winner.

The doubles was easy for the great Antipodean team, Parke being far off his game and Mavrogordato, although the only bright spot for the losers, outclassed.

Then Brookes and Wilding scratched their third-day matches. Doust and Dunlop, however, consented to play exhibition matches against the Englishman, Parke, making short work of the latter, but Doust playing an effective net game against Lowe until overcome by the terrific heat in the third set, then defaulting at seven all.

First Day: A. F. Wilding (Australasia) defeated A. H. Lowe (British Isles) 6-3, 6-1, 16-14; N. E. Brookes (Australasia) defeated J. C. Parke (British Isles) 6-2, 4-6, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5.

Second Day: N. E. Brookes and A. F. Wilding (Australasia) defeated J. C. Parke and T. M. Mavrogordato (British Isles) 6-1, 6-0, 6-4.

Third Day: A. H. Lowe (British Isles) defeated S. N. Doust 6-4, 4-6, 7-7 retired, J. C. Parke (British Isles) defeated A. W. Dunlop 6-0, 7-5, 6-3.

Final Round

AUSTRALASIA (Challenger) vs. UNITED STATES (Holder)

Before the largest gallery that ever watched a tennis contest and under nearly perfect conditions of weather, surroundings and management the challenge match in the 1914 Davis Cup contest was played at the West Side Club, Forest Hills, L. I., N. Y., on August 13, 14 and 15, and the meeting of these two leading tennis nations produced the greatest series of contests ever played, the play at times, rising to the superlative.

The challengers won, but by the narrowest possible margin of three points to two and only after the mighty Brookes and Wilding had been forced to play the greatest of their respective careers. Only their exceptional ability as a Doubles team, gave them the victory, and even this would not have saved them if America's second man in singles, Richard Norris Williams, 2nd, had been the player that he was a month later in the National championship.

As it was, William's best was not quite good enough to pluck victory from the masterly grasp of either of the famous Antipodeans, and McLoughlin and Bundy, America's choice as a team, just lacked the ability to turn the tide of victory in their direction, and the cup was lost.

But even this unhappy event was almost overshadowed by the marvelous play and victories of our captain and number one man, McLoughlin, who won the undisputed title of world's leading tennis player by defeating decisively both Brookes and Wilding in the two greatest matches ever witnesed.

On the opening day, Wilding defeated Williams in a heart rending battle, the start of which raised the hopes of the twelve thousand spectators to the seventh heaven, for the young American started like a whirl-wind winning three games by the most marvelous offensive playing imaginable, but thereafter came a quick reaction, and errors innumerable lost him the set at 7-5 and the next two, 6-2, 6-3.

In this match, Wilding was sure and deliberate, relying more on an uncanny ability to get and place accurately than on speed.

The sting of this defeat was more than wiped out an hour later, for McLoughlin met and defeated the visitor's captain, Norman E. Brookes, the Australasian wizard, in the most spectacular tennis battle ever waged.

Both players were on the top of their game and with the two greatest servers and volleyers, both past masters of finesse, pitted against each other, there eventuated a battle of Titans which beggars all description.

The contest was immortal and the first set unparalleled in closeness, bitterness and brilliancy for thirty-two games, up to the very last of which each master won his service regularly. The other two sets were scarcely less stubbornly and brilliantly fought, but the young American won each of them at 6-3, and thus defeated in straight sets, the man regarded heretofore as the world's greatest player.

The tide swept in the other direction on the second day again, however, for in spite of America's stubborn resistance which forced two of the three sets to deuce, the Australasian Doubles team won the pivotal point in straight sets.

Bundy, selected with great reluctance by the committee, rose to the occasion and held up his side splendidly although constantly the target of a rain of terrific shots. The little Californian's getting and lobbing was wonderful to behold, but strange and sad to relate, his great partner erred repeatedly and at crucial moments, through over anxiety, and this fact turned the scale in favor of the challengers.

The third day found Williams again in the first contest, pitted against the Australasian captain, and their meeting produced in some respects the most soul stirring and unusual match of the series. Brookes ran out the first two sets with heart-rending ease, Williams play being the epitome of wildness. But just when the gloom was darkest, the American made a characteristic rally, and playing with the dash and abandon of one inspired fought out and won the third set at 10-8 after one of the most sensational rallies in history, which set the gallery wild, their applause affecting the visitor so that his petulance and annoyance was undisguised and drew forth most unfavorable comments.

DAVIS CUP MATCHES AT FOREST HILLS, N. Y.

WILLIAMS vs. WILDING

The veteran's self control was only momentarily shaken however, and after the intermission he was himself once more and master of the situation, meeting Williams' best with better, and winning the crucial set at 6-3.

Although the other match—Wilding vs. McLoughlin—was now merely an exhibition affair, the meeting of these two giants was watched with bated breath and once more the American rose to heights of glory by outplaying his rival decisively in three out of four sets, the first of which was the most perfect exhibition of overpowering tennis ever given. With two sets to his credit, the Californian Comet let down a little and practically threw the third set, only maneuvring to get his service at the start of the fourth, which set he won impressively.

The summary:

WOMEN'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

EQUALLING the record of her fellow Californian Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, Miss Mary K. Browne of Los Angeles won three national titles—Singles, Doubles and Mixed Doubles—for the third consecutive year last June.

The women's championship was held as usual at the Philadelphia Cricket Club at St. Martin's during the week of June 8, before large and fashionable galleries and under excellent conditions of weather and management. Last year's challenger was Miss Marie Wagner of New York and although she came through the tournament with little difficulty, she was utterly out-classed by the title holder in two of the three sets. In the second set, however, she defeated Miss Browne with the loss of but one game.

Miss Browne's partner in the women's Doubles was Mrs. R. H. Williams, and in Mixed Doubles, W. T. Tilden, Jr., of Philadelphia. Tilden won the men's event, having J. R. Carpenter as opponent in the final round.

LONGWOOD CHAMPIONSHIP

IF it had not been for the fact that the outcome of the 24th Annual Longwood Championship was a practically foregone conclusion, last year's meeting, held at the historic Longwood Cricket Club July 20–28, inclusive, would have been one of the greatest in the long and illustrious history of this tourney. The national champion, Maurice McLoughlin, was among the entrants and his path to victory was never seriously threatened, but many of the contests between the other contenders produced the most thrilling and exceptional tennis imaginable. The entry list included practically all of the leading players of the country but several of them defaulted to save themselves for the Eastern Doubles. Unfortunately many of the stars were found in the top half of the draw which was top heavy, but each round furnished one or more thrilling battles.

McLoughlin came through the "all-comers" without losing a set, although apparently somewhat forced by Dabney, who put up a splendid fight, and by his fellow Californian, the youthful Murray, in one of the most sensational matches ever played at Longwood. He was complete master of the situation, defeating his most formidable rival, Williams, decisively, and making short work of still another San Franciscan, William M. Johnston, the 1914 winner in the challenge round. The event saw the return of Singles play of the veteran, Fred B. Alexander, and he showed his game had lost none of its brilliancy.

Among some of the matches which deserve special mention were those between Williams and Clothier, McLoughlin and Niles, Williams and Gardner, Fottrell and Seaver, Williams and Washburn, Williams and Alexander, and Murray and Fottrell.

EASTERN DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Eastern Doubles Championship and the privilege of representing the East in the contest to select the challengers for the National titles, fell to the new combination of K. H. Behr and T. R. Pell, last year their final victory being over the veteran team of ex-champions, H. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander, in straight sets the speed and impetuous attack of the winners beating down the famous defence of their opponents.

The tournament, held as always, in conjunction with the Longwood Bowl Singles during the week of July 20th proved to be a stirring meeting with plenty of class in the entry list and numerous hard fought brilliant battles.

Pell after a five set contest, the first three of which were nip and tuck, and captured the title from Gus. F. Touchard in an erratic four-set match.

Behr, playing with Pell, captured the Doubles championship as well with little difficulty, although the challenge match against Touchard and Washburn went to four sets.

Mrs. Louise H. Raymond came through the Women's Singles and successfully challenged Miss Edith Rotch for the title and with Mrs. Beard won the Doubles likewise.

SEABRIGHT INVITATION TOURNAMENT

THE annual invitation tournament of the Seabright Lawn Tennis and Country Club, held at the famous summer resort during the week of July 13, was made more notable than ever last year by the fact that it was one of the preliminary tryouts, as a result of which the Davis Cup defending team was to be chosen. The entry list was exceptionally weighty and most of the matches were close and brilliantly played in the extreme. R. N. Williams, 2nd, finally came through the hardest sort of play and won from a field of 32 famous contestants, challenging and defeating Pell, then holder of the Achilles cup, after a five-set battle. The event was played during one of the hottest spells of the year, which greatly handicapped the players and Murray was obliged to default in his match against Williams, almost collapsing from sun-stroke.

The Nationals champions, McLaughlin and Bundy, arrived from California in time to compete in and won the Doubles event, their opponents in the final round being the new team of Pell and Behr.

TENNIS IN HAWAII

THE annual tennis championships were played during the month of October on the fine asphalt courts of the Moana Hotel. Following closely on the heels of a strenuous baseball season, the entry list was not as large as usual. W. N. Eklund of Ewa Plantation, who has succeeded in developing a fairly strong all-round game, won out, his hardest competition being before the finals, as the luck of the draw brought the best players close together in the upper half.

The Doubles was won by a team of dark horses, Hoogs & Argabrite, who won on their ability to return everything and depended on their opponents' errors. Their lobbing game was, however, the best ever seen in Hawaii. Miss Hopper won the Ladies' Singles, and W. L. Warren and Mrs. Nichols the Mixed Doubles. This year's tournament marked the passing of the old guard in local tennis, whether permanently or not remains to be seen.

The real feature of the tennis year, however, was the inter-club tournament for the Wall & Dougherty Cup, the "Davis Cup" of the Hawaiian Islands. Two Singles matches and three Doubles are played in each tie. Six clubs entered, including one, Paia, from the Island of Maui, which club made a good showing against the ultimate winners. Competition was the keenest ever known in Hawaii, and a large crowd went down to Ewa Plantation to witness the challenge match between Ewa, the holder, and the Beretania Club, the town representative, the contest finally going to Beretania by a score of three matches to one, with the fifth unfinished.

Messrs. Johnston and Fottrell were in Honolulu during the Mid-Pacific Carnival in February, and won from Castle & Lowrey 6-4, 8-6, 7-5, before an enthusiastic crowd. In fact the tennis event was so successful that it is the intention of the Carnival people to run off an open tournament every February, to include both Singles and Doubles. As Honolulu is only a week's sail from the mainland, and as the month of February is one of the most delightful of the year, it is anticipated that such a feature would be a pleasure to the thousands of tourists here, as well as a benefit to local tennis.

The scores of the Men's Singles and Doubles follow:

The winning team is composed of W. S. McEllroy, Dr. T. W. Stephens, Elias Sunstein, D. W. Lloyd, Chisholm Garland and Wallace Ebe.

The other clubs of the association which put out teams, play in a separate division, and the Rangeley Tennis Association won the championship of this division in a walk. This makes Rangeley's second successive victory in the second group.

NATIONAL INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

THE thirty-fourth annual National Intercollegiate Championship furnished the crowning upset to a season filled to overflowing with surprises, for it terminated in the defeat of the newly made National Singles champion, Richard Norris Williams, 2nd, the overwhelming favorite and 1913 titlist, by George M. Church of Princeton. This unexpected victory gave Princeton one point on the new cup, Harvard, bringing her total up to three by winning the Doubles handily.

The early matches in Singles went as expected, the two leading aspirants for the Finals reaching the ultimate round with little difficulty. Williams was the top heavy favorite in this match naturally, but Church was as steady as a rock and out-generalled and out-maneuvred the champion from start to finish and won cleanly in four sets, his victory being the most notable thing he has ever accomplished.

It is fair to say that Williams was far from the player who had won the National title from McLoughlin, suffering from a mental let down, like that which affected the latter at Newport, and being extremely wild.

He fought doggedly and captured the third set, 6-4, but Church had the upper hand in the other three, all of which went to deuce several times. The final score was 8-6, 9-7, 4-6, 7-5.

Williams, paired with Richard Harte, had a partial revenge in Doubles, winning the finals from Church and Kidder in straight sets.

Lindley Murray, in the final match (postponed by request of the Davis Cup Committee till after the Internationals), while the famous pair of ex-champions, Hackett and Alexander, won the Doubles.

LAWN TENNIS NOTES

We learn with deep regret that Kenneth Powell, one of England's younger players, has been killed in action. He volunteered for service early in the war. The news of his death will be read with genuine grief by the lawn tennis players of this country, who have met him when abroad, for he was a good tennis player, very popular, and a good sportsman.

During the past season a number of the tennis clubs encouraged the Junior players by holding tournaments for them, and it is hoped many more clubs will do the same this year, as it is these boys we must look to for places on our future Davis Cup Teams.

The Guide asks the clubs holding these tournaments to please send us an account of same.

During the past year three new and attractive Lawn Tennis papers have put in their appearance. They are the "Pacific Coast Tennis Review," published at Los Angeles, Cal., Editor, Glenn H. Morris. The "Texas Tennis," published at Dallas, Texas, Editor, Paul D. McQuiston, and the "Border States Tennis," published at Tucson, Arizona, Editor, Paul E. Jette.

Accompanying the Australian Davis Cup Team to America last year to witness the Davis Cup matches, was A. J. Roberts and R. M. Kidston, both good sports and were naturally much pleased over the victories of their team. R. M. Kidston is an authority on the game in Australia and has written several books on the sport, while with the British Isles team was A. Wallis Myers, authority on the game in England, and he is also author of an interesting illustrated book on tennis. They each gave accounts while here of their idea on the game, crowds and players in America, which was quite interesting reading.

Linesmen should use care and not call good when a ball falls on the line; only call out when the ball falls outside the court, as it disconcerts the player.

By defeating Ralph L. Baggs in the final round, Basil Wagner of Baltimore won the Championship of Bermuda. This is the first time the challenge cup has left the Island.

The following items were taken from the February, 1915, English Lawn Tennis:

"Another important matter up for discussion at the annual meeting of the U. S. N. L. T. Association, was in regard to the Davis Cup matches, and it was decided that no challenge should be issued by the United States in 1915. We are sure our readers will agree with us in thinking that this decision was, in the circumstances, a sporting one, for if the United States had issued a challenge, her team would, in all probability have secured the cup by default, and this would have proved a barren honour not at all to the liking of lawn tennis players in the U. S. A. America is always prepared to fight for the coveted trophy, and stands more than an even chance of winning it, but she wishes to do so by the skill and stamina of her players and not at a time when a European war deprives her of opposition."

Hugh Kelleher of Seattle, now a sophomore at Harvard University, gives promise of being heard of in future intercollegiates. As he entered Harvard as a sophomore this year he is unable to go out for the Varsity.

The attention drawn to tournament managers and players by the Executive committee of the U. S. N. L. T. Association, through a notice in the Official Lawn Tennis Guide to the Foot Fault Rule has shown good results, as it has been less violated the past season than ever before. A majority of the clubs holding tournaments made mention of the rule on their tournament circular, stating the rule would be enforced as it should be. A player who is allowed to take advantage of it to get to the net is given a privilege over a base line player, often resulting in a victory to the former when it does not belong to him.

The idea of having a Veterans' tournament, the age limit 40, is a good one, but should the age not be 45, as a man is in his prime at 40? Our tennis players give up playing the game too early in life.

At many of the leading tournaments in England, the Veteran event is scheduled as one of the most interesting, but the age to qualify is generally 50 years or over.

Why does not Dr. Stephens of Pittsburg, who made the suggestion of such a tournament, or better still the clubs or associations, introduce the idea in their tournaments? It is not too late to do it the coming season.

The annual meeting of the Intercollegiate Lawn Tennis Association was held at the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, Pa., Monday, September 14. The following officers to serve for the ensuing year were elected:

R. N. Williams, 2nd (Harvard), president; R. Stoddart (Yale), vice-president; A. E. Kennedy, Jr., (Pennsylvania), secretary; B. C. Law, (Princeton), treasurer.

The following new members were elected: Amherst, Cornell, University of Pittsburg.

The Achelis Challenge Cup is fast becoming a famous trophy in connection with the Seabright Invitation tournament as it has been up for competition for twelve years and has the following names of well-known players engraved on it:

1903, Beals C. Wright.
1904, William A. Larned.
1905, William A. Larned.
1906, Fred B. Alexander.
1907, Raymond D. Little.
1908, William J. Clothier.
1909, William J. Clothier.
1910, Nathaniel W. Niles.
1911, Melville H. Long.
1912, Nathaniel W. Niles.
1913, Theodore R. Pell.
1914, R. Norris Williams, 2nd.

Montreal, Canada, has an Indoor Lawn Tennis building with two courts, on the same lines as the Longwood Covered Court, Boston. The name of the club is the "Montreal Indoor Tennis Club." It is hoped matches may be arranged in the near future between the Canadian Indoor Tennis players and those of Boston and New York.

The International tournament which has taken place at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Canada, for over 25 years and on which courts about all the best players in the States and Canada have taken part, and where many exciting matches have been played, will not be a fixture the coming season of 1915. This will be greatly regretted as it was here the tennis players enjoyed a most pleasant week's outing. Being held in September, it was the ending of the season's play of many of the tennis men, but it is hoped the event will soon be in action again, same as of old.

It is bad taste to question a decision made by an Umpire or Linesman.

LAWN TENNIS BALLS

LAWN Tennis balls, although it is not realized by most tennis players, are most delicate and should be taken care of as carefully as the gut in one's racket. For instance, in a Championship ball the requirements are very precise, and it has to be manufactured most carefully to meet all requirements. The felt covering on a ball is very important. The wall or thickness of the rubber must be just so. If too thick, one will be unable to play the various shots correctly, especially the volley, and, if too thin, the ball cannot be controlled properly, being too lively.

Heat and cold have more effect on a ball than almost anything. In cold weather the balls become heavy and soggy and need more hitting, while on a hot day, they expand and one's stroke must be more sensitive, consequently on hot days the play is much faster.

Players as well as dealers should keep the balls in a dry place of even temperature, then they will hold their life longer and will not deteriorate and become soft.

It is a great mistake and one that is often made for players to leave the balls unboxed in a locker with damp clothing. It is only natural that balls wear out more quickly when used on dirt or cement courts, because the felt cover which cannot be made of a coarse material, wears out easily, thus causing the ball to become light and hard to control. This is most noticeable on a windy day when lobbing or playing a long stroke from behind the base line. Balls used on grass hold their weight and are likely to become somewhat heavier. When practicing for big contests the leading players seldom use the balls in more than from three to four sets during an afternoon's practice.

HOW TO MAKE A LAWN TENNIS COURT

In making a Lawn Tennis Court there should be, if possible, a clear margin of at least 12 feet on each side and 21 feet at each end of the court, or, between adjacent courts, 18 feet on each side; but should the courts be placed end to end, or end to side, there should be spaces of 42 feet or 33 feet respectively and a back net at least 8 feet high between.

The cheapest and most easy court to make is a

Clay Court

It is done by removing the sward from the lawn, taking care that the same is cut deep enough not to allow any of the grass roots to remain; there should be a space dug out 118 feet by 56 and about 6 or 10 inches deep, fill in with yellow clay and cover with 1-2 inch of carefully sifted binding gravel, taking out all small stones to the size of a pea, wet well and roll into the foundation of clay. If the court continues to be soft or sticky, spread more binding gravel over it, and continue to roll until the clay and gravel commences to bind and becomes firm. The maker of the court will have to use his own best judgment about this, as it is hard to decide the exact quantities of clay and binding gravel that should be used to cause the court to have the proper firmness.

In making the court there should be a gradual slope from the base lines to the center running across the court. Between the net posts should be built a blind drain; this is done to take off the water after a heavy rain.

A stone foundation is bad for a court, as it becomes hard and dry and severe on a player's feet and legs to play on.

Grass Courts

These can be made in three ways, namely: first, by improving an existing stretch of turf until it is level and smooth enough; second, by leveling the ground, preparing the soil, and sowing grass seeds; and third, by laying fresh turf. Of these, the former is of course the simplest; but as the requisite piece of grass land is rarely available, particulars for preparing it are seldom required. In improving such a piece of turf care should be taken to remove all weeds or coarse grasses, and to freely use the spirit-level. To raise hollow places the turf should be cut out, lifted, and fine soil placed underneath until the proper height has been obtained, when the turf should be replaced and well beaten down with the flat side of a spade. On the other hand, small mounds should be removed by taking the soil away from under the grass, some fine mould being placed underneath the turf before it is replaced. To prepare a court for sowing seeds the same instructions may be followed as for making a turf-laid one, except that the seed will be sown instead of the turfs laid. Take care that the seed is good by purchasing from a first-class seedsman, and, when ordering, it will be well to state what sort of soil is to be sown. By far the larger number of courts are made by laying fresh turfs.

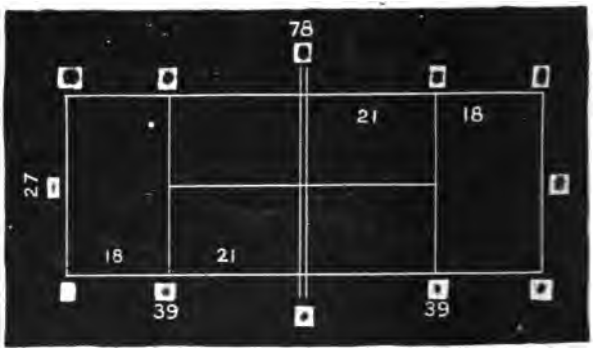
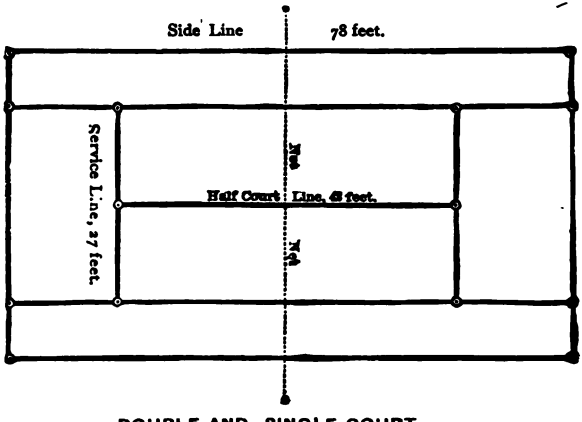
When preparing the ground for a court, it is desired to level a portion measuring 100 x 50 feet, which allows an ample margin; but for the playing portion itself only 78 x 36 feet is necessary. If economy must be strictly considered, only the latter need be carefully prepared; but it is better to have the whole done if possible.



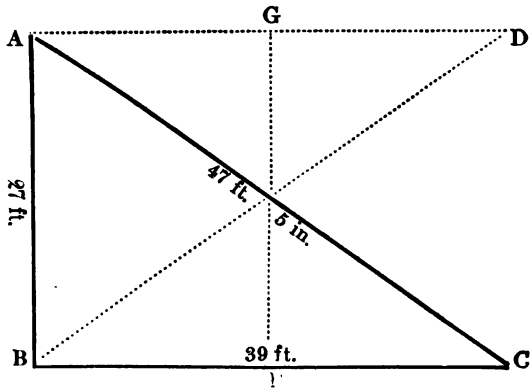
SINGLE COURT.



DOUBLE AND SINGLE COURT.

Dimensions of Lawn Tennis Courts.— The above cuts give the dimensions of the single court, and the double and single court on which a single or double game can be played.

HOW TO MARK OUT A COURT



As a double court practically includes every line to be found in a single court, it is best to take first the measure for the latter. Having determined the position of your net, plant in the ground, in the line chosen, two pegs, 27 feet apart (at the points A and B in the diagram). Then take two measures and attach their respective ends to the pegs A and B. On the first, which will measure the diagonal of the court, take a length of 47 ft. 5 in.; on the other, 39 ft.; pull both taut in such directions that at these distances they meet, in a point C. This will give one corner of the court. At that point, F 21 feet from B, put in a peg to mark the end of the service-line. The other corner, D, and the other end of the service-line G, may be found by interchanging the measures and repeating the process. The same measurements on the other side of the net will complete the exterior boundaries of the court. By prolonging the base-line 4 ft. 6 in. in each direction, and joining the four new points thus obtained, we can make the side-lines of a double court. It only remains to mark the central line. This is done by joining the middle points of the service-lines. If a double court alone be required, the interior side-lines need not be prolonged to meet the base-lines. Remember that in all cases the net-posts must stand at a distance of three feet from the side-lines.

LAWS OF LAWN TENNIS.

THE COURT.

1. The Court is 78 feet long and 27 feet wide. It is divided across the middle by a net, the ends of which are attached to two posts, A and B, standing 3 feet outside of the court on either side. The height of the net is 3 feet 6 inches at the posts, and 3 feet in the middle. At each end of the court, parallel with the net, and 39 feet from it, are drawn the base lines D E and F G, the ends of which are connected by the side lines D F and E G. Halfway between the side lines, and parallel with them, is drawn the half court line I H, dividing the space on each side of the net into two equal parts, the right and left courts. On each side of the net, at a distance of 21 feet from it, and parallel with it, are drawn the service lines K L and M N.

THE BALLS.

2. The Balls shall measure not less than 2½ inches, nor more than 2 9-16 inches in diameter; and shall weigh not less than 1 15-16 ounces, nor more than 2 ounces.

THE GAME.

3. The choice of sides, and the right to serve in the first game, shall be decided by toss; provided that, if the winner of the toss choose the right to serve, the other player shall have choice of sides, and vice versa, or the winner of the toss may insist upon a choice by his opponent. If one player choose the court, the other may elect not to serve.

4. The players shall stand on opposite sides of the net; the player who first delivers the ball shall be called the server, and the other the striker-out.

5. At the end of the first game the striker-out shall become server, and the server shall become striker-out; and so on alternately in all the subsequent games of the set and following sets.

FOOT FAULT RULE.

6. The server shall before commencing to serve stand with both feet at rest behind (i.e., further from the net than) the base-line and within the limits of the imaginary continuation of the half-court and side-lines, and thereafter the server shall not run, walk, hop or jump before the service has been delivered, but the server may raise one foot from (and, if desired, replace it on) the ground, provided that both feet are kept behind the base line until the service has been delivered.

Official Interpretation of law 6. If a foot be lifted and replaced, there must be no change of position that can possibly be considered a step.

7. The service shall be delivered from the right and left courts alternately, beginning from the right in every game, even though odds be given or owed, and the ball served shall drop within the service-line, half court-line and side-line of the court which is diagonally opposite to that from which it was served or upon any such line.

8. It is a fault if the server commit any breach of rule 7, or if he does not stand as directed in rule 6, or if the ball served drop in the net, or beyond the service line, or if it drop out of court or in the wrong court. If the server in attempting to serve, miss the ball altogether, it does not count as a fault; but if the ball be touched, no matter how slightly, by the racket, a service is thereby delivered, and the laws governing the service at once apply.

9. A fault cannot be taken.

10. After a fault the server shall serve again from the same court from which he served that fault, unless it was a fault because he served from the wrong court.

11. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service is delivered.

12. The server shall not serve till the striker-out is ready. If the latter attempt to return the service, he shall be deemed ready.

13. A service or fault delivered when the striker-out is not ready counts for nothing.

14. The service shall not be volleyed, that is, taken, before it has touched the ground.

15. A ball is in play on leaving the server's racket, except as provided for in law 8, and remains in play till the stroke is decided.

16. It is a good return, although the ball touch the net; but a service, otherwise good, which touches the net shall count for nothing.

17. The server wins a stroke if the striker-out volley the service, or if he fail to return the service or the ball in play; or if he return the service or the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke, as provided by law 20.

18. The striker-out wins a stroke if the server serve two consecutive faults; or if he fail to return the ball in play; or if he return the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke as provided by law 20.

19. A ball falling on a line is regarded as falling in the court bounded by that line.

20. Either player loses a stroke if the ball touch him, or anything that he wears or carries, except his racket in the act of striking; or if he touch the ball with his racket more than once; or if he touch the net or any of its supports, or the ground within his opponent's court, while the ball is in play; or if he volley the ball before it has passed the net.

21. In case a player is obstructed by any accident, not within his control, the ball shall be considered a "let." But when a permanent fixture of the court is the cause of the accident, the point shall be counted. The benches and chairs placed around the court shall be considered permanent fixtures. If, however, a ball in play strike a permanent fixture of the court (other than the net or posts) before it touches the ground, the point is lost; if after it has touched the ground, the point shall be counted.

22. On either player winning his first stroke, the score is called 15 for that player; on either player winning his second stroke, the score is called 30 for that player; on either player winning his third stroke, the score is called 40 for that player; and the fourth stroke won by either player is scored game for that player, except as below. If both players have won three strokes, the score is called deuce; and the next stroke won by either player is scored advantage for that player. If the same player win the next stroke, he wins the game; if he lose the next stroke the score returns to deuce, and so on until one player wins the two strokes immediately following the score of deuce, when game is scored for that player.

23. The player who first wins six games wins the set; except as below: If both players win five games the score is called games all; and the next game won by either player is scored advantage game for that player. If the same player win the next game, he wins the set; if he lose the next game, the score returns to games all; and so on, until either player wins the two games immediately following the score of games all, when he wins the set. But the committee having charge of any tournament may in their discretion modify this rule by the omission of advantage sets.

24. The players shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of each set and at the end of each set, unless the number of games in such set be even. It shall, however, be open to the players by mutual consent and notification to the umpire before the opening of the second game of the match to change sides instead at the end of every set until the odd and concluding set, in which they shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of such set.

* 25. In all contests the play shall be continuous from the first service till the match be concluded; provided, however, that at the end of the third set either player is entitled to a rest, which shall not exceed seven minutes; and provided, further, that in case of an unavoidable accident, not within the control of the contestants, a cessation of play which shall not exceed two minutes may be allowed between points; but this proviso shall be strictly construed, and the privilege never granted for the purpose of allowing a player to recover his strength or wind. The referee in his discretion may at any time postpone the match on account of darkness or condition of the ground or weather. In any case of postponement, the previous score shall hold good. Where the play has ceased for more than an hour, the player who at the cessation thereof

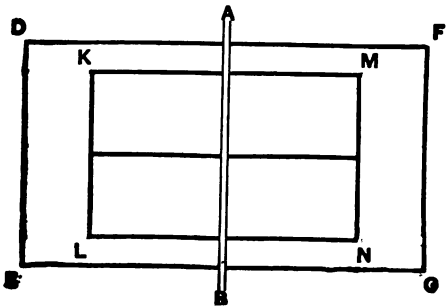
*All matches in which women take part in tournaments held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association shall be the best two in three sets, with a rest not exceeding seven minutes after the second set.

was in the court first chosen shall have the choice of courts on the recommencement of play. He shall stay in the court he chooses for the remainder of the set. The last two sentences of this rule do not apply when the players change every alternate game as provided by law 24.

26. If a player serve out of his turn, the umpire, as soon as the mistake is discovered, shall direct the player to serve who ought to have served. But all strokes scored before such discovery shall be counted. If a game shall have been completed before such discovery, then the service in the next alternate game shall be delivered by the player who did not serve out of his turn, and so on in regular rotation.

27. The above laws shall apply to the three-handed and four-handed games, except as below:—

THE THREE-HANDED AND FOUR-HANDED GAMES.



28. For the three-handed and four-handed games the court shall be 36 feet in width; 4½ feet inside the side lines, and parallel with them, are drawn the service side lines K M and L N. The service lines are not drawn beyond the point at which they meet the service side lines, as shown in the diagram.

29. In the three-handed game, the single player shall serve in every alternate game.

30. In the four-handed game, the pair who have the right to serve in the first game shall decide which partner shall do so; and the opposing pair shall decide in like manner for the second game. The partner of the player who served in the first game shall serve in the third, and the partner of the player who served in the second game shall serve in the fourth, and the same order shall be maintained in all the subsequent games of the set.

31. At the beginning of the next set, either partner of the pair which struck out in the last game of the last set may serve; and the same privilege is given to their opponents in second game of the new set.

32. The players shall take the service alternately throughout the game; a player cannot receive a service delivered to his partner; and the order of service and striking out once established shall not be altered, nor shall the striker-out change courts to receive the service, till the end of the set.

33. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop between the service line, half-court line, and service side line of the court, diagonally opposite to that from which it was served.

34. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop as provided in law 33, or if it touch the server's partner or anything he wears or carries.

UNITED STATES
NATIONAL LAWN TENNIS ASSOCIATION

FOOT-FAULT RULE

Every effort to bring about the careful observance of this rule during the coming playing season will be used by the Executive Committee, who will welcome the co-operation of all Club officers in connection with tournaments held under the sanction of the National Body. If every Club holding an authorized tournament will make a special effort to secure for their tournament a "Foot-fault Committee" and will have such committee carefully study and post themselves as to just what constitutes a foot-fault and then rigidly enforce such rule, material good will be accomplished in connection with the legitimate interests of the game.

The Executive Committee especially requests that all Clubs giving tournaments with the sanction of the U. S. N. L. T. A. include in their printed notices direct information "THAT THE FOOT-FAULT RULE MUST BE OBSERVED" and copy such rule verbatim as part of their tournament announcement.

The Constitution

OF THE

United States National Lawn Tennis Association

ARTICLE I

NAME

This organization shall be known as the "United States National Lawn Tennis Association," hereinafter referred to as the National Association.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERS

SECTION 1. The membership shall consist of the following classes:

(1) Clubs
(2) Active Associations
(3) Allied Associations

Allied associations shall consist of associations of schools or colleges, but such associations, if they so desire, may become active associations by notifying the Secretary of the National Association and paying the dues for an active association. Active associations shall consist of all associations other than allied associations and in each case the limits of an active association shall necessarily exclude to that extent the imits of every other such association.

SEC. 2. An association either (2) or (3) shall consist of five or more individual clubs, any one of which may or may not be itself a member directly of the National Association. Each club shall at all meetings be entitled to one vote. Each active association shall be entitled to two votes and to one additional vote for every five clubs or fraction thereof members of it over ten. Allied associations shall not be entitled to any vote. No club being itself a member of the National Association shall be counted as a member of an active association in determining the number of votes which may be cast by such association.

SEC. 3. On or before the first day of January in every year each sub-association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer and a list of clubs belonging to it on December 1st preceding, and each club directly a member of the National Association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer, holding office on December 1st preceding. The secretary of each association shall notify the Secretary of the National Association of any changes in its membership immediately upon their occurrence.

ARTICLE III

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

SEC. 1. Proposals for membership must be made in writing to the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, with the name and address of the applicant, and signed by the proper officer of the club or association making the proposal, and shall give such information with regard to membership, grounds, etc., as shall be required by the Executive Committee. Where the applicant is an association, the names and addresses of each of its members shall be given with the application, together with a statement of the limits that it desires to represent.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee shall have full power to elect candidates for membership, except that no association shall be deemed a member whose limits shall conflict with those of any other association until its election be confirmed by a two-thirds' vote at the annual meeting of the National Association, or the associations upon whose limits it encroaches consent to such encroachment. The election to membership of such an association automatically decreases the limits of other associations to such an extent as shall preclude a conflict of limits.

SEC. 3. Dues, etc.—The annual dues to the National Association, in the case of clubs, shall be ten dollars ($10) and in the case of active associations shall be thirty-five dollars ($35), except that where any such association is composed of more than ten clubs its annual dues shall in addition be fifteen dollars ($15) for every five clubs or fraction thereof above ten. Allied associations shall not be required to pay any annual dues. No clubs or association shall be allowed the privilege of a member until after its first annual dues have been paid and no club shall be entitled to a vote at the annual meeting of the National Association unless it was a member thereof for the preceding fiscal year. The fiscal year of the National Association shall begin February 1st. All dues for the ensuing year are payable on or before May 1st.

SEC. 4. Limits of Payments, etc.—Any club or association which shall fail to have paid its annual dues on or before June 1st may be debarred from the privileges of a member by the Executive Committee until the same are paid, and, at their discretion, may be dropped from the roll.

ARTICLE IV

RESIGNATIONS, EXPULSIONS, ETC.

SEC. 1. Resignations, etc.—Any member wishing to resign must do so in writing, addressed to the Secretary; and the resignation cannot be accepted until all dues for the current fiscal year are paid. Resignations must be received before February 1st to relieve the member from payment of dues for the ensuing year.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee of the National Association hereinafter provided for, shall have the power to suspend or expel any member which may neglect or refuse a strict and honorable compliance with its constitution, By-Laws, etc., or which shall, by its conduct, bring reproach or disgrace upon the National Association; or which shall, being itself an association, retain as one of its members any club objected to by notice in writing by the Executive Committee, subject to the right of any member, if expelled, to appeal to the National Association, at its next annual meeting, for reinstatement.

REVISED AND ADOPTED BY

UNITED STATES GREAT BRITAIN FRANCE BELGIUM
AUSTRIA AUSTRALIA

1906

1. The Competition shall be called "The International Lawn Tennis Championship," and shall be open to any Nation which has a recognized Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization; and, for the purposes of these Regulations, Australia with New Zealand, the British Isles, British South Africa, Canada, India, and the United States of America shall, amongst others, be regarded as separate Nations.

2. The Nation for the time being holding the International Lawn Tennis Championship shall hereinafter be termed "The Champion Nation."

3. The Competition shall take place in accordance with the following Regulations, and, except in so far as may be agreed upon by the competing Nations for their own Tie, with the Laws and Regulations of the game for the time being sanctioned by the Champion Nation.

4. The management of the Competition shall be entrusted to a Committee, hereafter termed "the Committee of Management," which shall be appointed annually by the Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of the Champion Nation.

5. The Committee of Management shall make all arrangements for the preliminary Tie or Ties (if any) of the Competition where such preliminary Tie or Ties are to be played in the Country of the Champion Nation, and also for the Challenge Tie, and its decision in respect of all such arrangements shall be final. The Committee of Management shall also have power to depute to others, in any preliminary Tie or Ties, the making of all or any such arrangements as may be deemed necessary.

6. Any Nation wishing to compete shall give notice to the Secretary of the Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of the Champion Nation, so that it shall reach him not later than the first Monday in March of the year in which the Competition is to take place. Should more than one Nation challenge, they shall compete among themselves for the right to play the Champion Nation in the Challenge Tie. The Draw, at which each challenging Nation may be represented, shall be made by the Committee of Management on the day following the first Monday in March, and particulars shall be notified to the respective Secretaries for the time being of the Lawn Tennis Associations or Corresponding Organizations of the several competing Nations, with an intimation of the latest date by which the Tie or Ties shall be concluded. Failure to conclude a Tie by the date fixed by the Committee of Management shall render both Sides liable to be scratched, unless, in the opinion of the Committee of Management, the weather or other unavoidable hindrance, shall have made completion impossible. Competing Nations shall arrange among themselves for the playing of their respective Ties upon a ground or grounds, and upon a dates or dates convenient to those concerned; but, in the event of an agreement not being arrived at, the preliminary Tie or Ties shall be played in the country of the Champion Nation upon a ground or grounds, and upon a date or dates, to be fixed upon by the Committee of Management.

7. When gate-money shall be taken, one half of the profit shall belong to the visiting Nation; or. in the case of a Tie being played on neutral ground, one third each to the visiting Nations, and the remaining fraction of profit in each case shall go to the Nation in whose Country the Tie shall be played.

8. The Challenge Tie shall be played in the Country of the Champion Nation at a date and upon a ground to be agreed upon by common consent. In the event of an agreement not being arrived at, the fixing of the date and ground shall be submitted to Arbitration.

9. A player shall be qualified to represent a Nation, if he shall have been born in that Nation, or shall have resided therein for at least two years immediately preceding a Tie, provided always that he be a bona fide Amateur; but no one shall be entitled to play for more than one Nation in this Competition during the same year. During the time that a player may be qualifying to play for a Nation under the residential qualification, he may play for the Nation for which he shall have been last previously qualified.

10. The Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of each of the Nations concerned shall appoint a Captain of its Side. In default of such appointment a Side shall choose its own Captain.

11. For each Tie a Referee, from whose decision there shall be no appeal, shall be appointed by common consent of the Captains of the competing Sides. He shall have power to appoint Umpires. He shall decide any point of law which an Umpire may profess hinself unable to decide, or which may be referred to him on appeal from the decision of an Umpire by the players. 12. (a) Each competing Nation shall, twenty-one days before the date fixed for the commencement of a Tie, nominate to the Committee of Management not more than four players, without specifying who shall play in Singles and Doubles. Different players, however, may be nominated by a Nation for different Ties.

(b) Each Captain shall, twenty-four hours before the time fixed for the commencement of play in each Contest, give notice of the composition of his Team to the Executive Committee, and his Team shall be selected from the four players previously nominated for the Tie. Such selection by the Captain, however, shall be regarded as solely for the convenience of the Executive Committee, and may be varied by him before the commencement of play.

(c) For the Second Round of the Singles Contest in any Tie, the Referee may sanction the substitution of another of the players nominated by a Nation for that Tie in the place of any player, who, in the opinion of the Referee, is incapacitated by illness, accident, or other unavoidable hindrance; provided that such substitute shall not be the player who has already competed in the Singles Contest.

13. The time of cessation of play shall be fixed before the commencement of each day's play by the Captains of the opposing Sides, or by the Referee if they shall disagree. It shall be the duty of the Referee to stop play when this time arrives; provided, nevertheless, that he may extend the time with the consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides. A player shall not be called upon to play more than one Match a day, except with the unaminous consent of the Captains of the opposing Sides and the majority of the Executive Committee.

14. Each Tie shall be decided by the combined results of Singles and Doubles, and the Side which shall win the majority of Matches shall be the winner of a Tie.

Team the best of five advantage sets. The order of play and courts shall be decided by lot. In the Doubles, each Team shall consist of two players, who shall play against the opposing Team the best of five advantage sets.

16. If, however, a player be chosen for both the Singles and Doubles Contests, and if, by a change in the above arrangements, he be called upon to play his two Singles Matches on consecutive days, then there shall be an interval of one day between the second and the third days' play. Provided, nevertheless, that if there be an interval between the first and second days' play, either from postponement, arrangement, or the interval of a Sunday, there shall not be an interval between the second and third days' play.

17. If any player be absent when called upon to play by the Referee, the opposing Side shall be entitled to three love sets.

18. Any Competing Nation whose Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization, or whose Representatives shall fail to conform to the above Regulations, may be disqualified by the Committee of Management in respect of the Competition for the year wherein such failure shall occur.

19. Winners of a preliminary Tie shall notify the result without delay to the Committee of Management, by telegram, which shall be confirmed by letter.

20. For purposes of correspondence and the giving of notices required by these Regulations, the Secretary for the time being of the Lawn Tennis Association or Corresponding Organization of the Champion Nation shall be regarded as representing the Committee of Management.

21. The above Regulations shall be binding upon the Nations concerned, and shall not be altered except with the consent of two-thirds of the Associations or Corresponding Organizations whose Nations shall have from time to time competed and who shall record their votes.

NOTE: In the above Regulations, one Nation playing against another is regarded as a "Tie"; Singles and Doubles are regarded as separate "Contests;" and the best of five advantage sets is regarded as a "Match." The players in Singles and Doubles are regarded as separate "Teams;" and the players in the combined Contests as a "Side."

9.—It is the duty of an Umpire—

(a) To ascertain that the net is at the right height before the commencement of play, and to measure and adjust the net during play, if asked to do so, or if, in his opinion, its height has altered.

(b) To call the faults (subject to Regulation 10) and lets unless he delegates such power.

(c) To call the strokes when won, or when he is asked to call them, and to record them upon the Umpire's scoring sheet.

(d) To call the games and the sets at the end of each,

---

* Example:

The strokes are scored by means of pencil marks in the spaces beneath the word "STROKES," thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.																					Game won by
1	A. B.	1	1		1		1

The score of the Server should be called first.

or when asked to call them, and to record them on the Umpire's scoring sheet.

NOTE—At the end of each game the games should be called with the name of the player who is in advance, thus: "2 games to 1, B wins" or, "B leads." If the games are level the score should be called thus, "three games all," or as the case may be. At the end of each set the sets should be called in like manner.

(e) To direct the Competitors to change sides, in accordance with Law 24.

In scoring handicap matches, the odds received should be marked by crosses on the right of the first perpendicular thick line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.	Game won by
1	A. B.	+
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
3	A. B.	+
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +

Here A. B. is receiving 15 and 3-sixths of 15.

(f) When appealed to during a rally, whether a doubtful ball is "in play" or not, to call "play," and at the conclusion of the rally to give his decision (subject to Regulation 11) or direct the Competitors to play the stroke again.

(g) To decide all doubtful or disputed strokes, and all points of law (subject to Regulations 10 and 11), and to be responsible for the proper conduct of the match.

When odds are owed, they should be marked on the left of the first thick perpendicular line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.	Game won by
1	A. B.	1 1
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	1
3	A. B.	1 1
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	1
5	A. B.	1
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	1

(h) In handicap matches to call the odds at the commencement of each set.

(i) To sign the Umpire's scoring sheets, and to deliver them at the conclusion of the match to such person as the Committee may authorize to receive them.

Provided, that no omission of any of the foregoing duties on the part of an Umpire shall of itself invalidate any stroke, game or match.

5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+

Here A.B. owes 15 and 2-sixths of 15.

10.—It is the duty of the Linesman to call faults and to decide strokes relating to the line or lines to which he is assigned and to said line or lines only, and such decision shall be final. Should the Linesman be unable to give a decision, the Umpire shall decide or shall direct the stroke to be played again.

11. The decision of an Umpire shall be final upon every question of fact, and no competitor may appeal from it; but if an Umpire be in doubt as to a point of law, or if a competitor appeal against his decision on such a point, the Umpire shall submit it to the Referee whose decision shall be final.

NOTE—A question of fact relates to events that actually happened. A question of law is the construction and application of the laws of the game to the admitted facts.

12. The Referee shall not bet on a match nor shall an Umpire or Linesman on the match to which he is assigned. An infraction of this rule shall be followed by the immediate removal of the offending Referee, Umpire or Linesman on the complaint of any competitor.

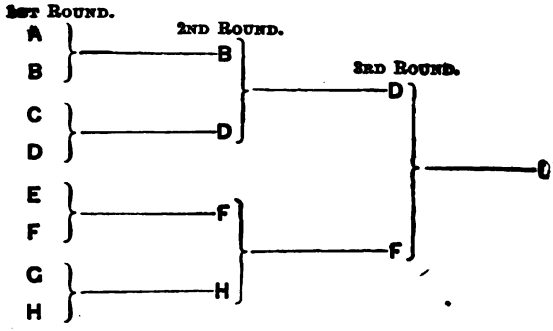
13. No Competitor may transfer his entry to another player.

14.—Competitors shall have a right, by themselves or their deputies, to be present at the draw.

15.—The draw shall be conducted in the following manner: Each Competitor's name shall be written on a separate card or paper, and these shall be placed in a bowl or hat, drawn out one by one at random, and copied on a list in the order in which they have been drawn

Infraction of this rule renders a Club or other organization liable to loss of its tournament for the following year; except that in invitation tournaments, and competitions between nations, states, cities, clubs and similar bodies where the competition is really between such bodies and not between the players as individuals, players may be placed in such manner as agreed upon by the management of the competition, and except that in Intercollegiate and Interscholastic matches the draw shall be arranged to prevent members of the same college or school from meeting each other in the first and second rounds, the draw in other ways being arranged absolutely by chance.

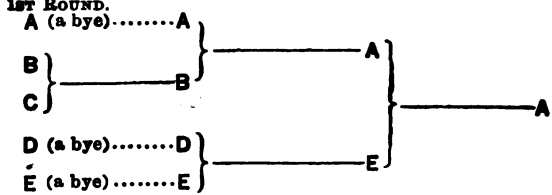
16.—When the number of Competitors is 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, or any higher power of 2, they shall meet in pairs, in accordance with the system shown by the following diagram:



17.—When the number of Competitors is not a power of 2 there shall be byes in the first round. The number of bye shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next higher power of 2, and the number of pairs that shall meet in the first round shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next lower power of 2. The byes, if even in number, shall be divided, as the names are drawn, in equal proportions at the top and bottom of the list, above and below the pairs. If uneven in number, there shall be one more bye at the bottom than at the top. Thus—

SERIES 1.

From 5 to 8 Competitors.



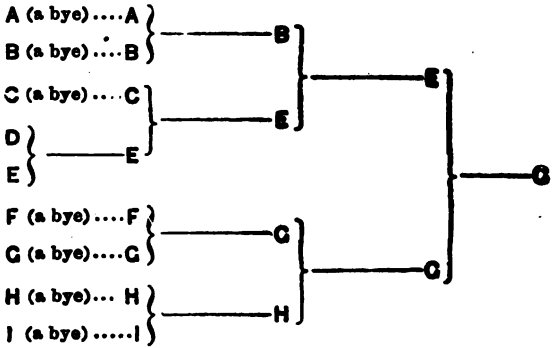
With 6, there will be one bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom. With 7, 1 bye at the bottom. With 8, no byes.

Series 2.

From 9 to 16 Competitors.

With 9, 8 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.

1ST ROUND.

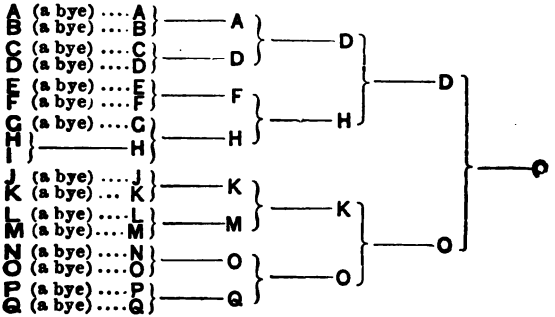


With 10, 3 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 11, 2 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 12, 2 byes at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 13, 1 bye at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 14, 1 bye at the top, and 1 at the bottom.
With 15, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 16, no byes.

SERIES 2.

From 17 to 32 Competitors.

With 17, 7 byes at the top, and 8 byes at the bottom.



With 18, 7 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 19, 6 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 20, 6 byes at the top, and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 21, 5 byes at the top, and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 22, 5 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 23, 4 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 24, 4 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 25, 3 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 26, 3 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 27, 2 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 28, 2 byes at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 29, 1 bye at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 30, 1 bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom.
With 31, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 32, no byes.
And so on with larger numbers in the same manner.

18.—If a Competitor be absent when called upon to play, or shall refuse to play, or shall have given previous notice to the Referee or to a member of the Committee that he cannot play in the next round, his adversary shall win in that round, unless said Competitor shall have been formally excused for a definite period by the Referee.

19.—In handicap matches the competitors shall be handicapped by the Committee, or by a Handicapper appointed by the Committee.

20.—The method of handicapping shall be by classes as below: —

GIVEN ODDS.

Class O — (Scratch).

Class	1	receives	1-sixth of 15.
"	2	"	2-sixths of 15.
"	3	"	3-sixths of 15.
"	4	"	4-sixths of 15.
"	5	"	5-sixths of 15.
"	6	"	15.
"	7	"	15 and 1-sixth of 15.
"	8	"	15 and 2-sixths of 15.
"	9	"	15 and 3-sixths of 15.
"	10	"	15 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	11	"	15 and 5-sixths of 15.
"	12	"	30.
"	13	"	30 and 1-sixth of 15.
"	14	"	30 and 2-sixths of 15.
"	15	"	30 and 3-sixths of 15.
"	16	"	30 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	17	"	30 and 5-sixths of 15.
"	18	"	40.

When two players in different classes below scratch meet, the superior player shall start from scratch, and the odds received by the inferior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 1. To use the table, find in the diagonal line of figures the number representing the class of the superior player, then travel along the horizontal column until the vertical column is reached which bears at the top the number of the class of the inferior player. The odds specified at the intersection of the two columns are the odds required.

Example.—If class 3 has to meet class 9, start from the figure 3 in the diagonal line of figures, and look horizontally until the vertical column is reached headed by the figure 9. The odds given at the point of intersection of the two columns (viz., 15 and 1-6 of 15) are the odds required.

When the difference between the best and the worst players entered is great (say more than 30), it is desirable to handicap the best players at owed odds. The players above scratch (i. e., owing odds) should be classified as follows: —

OWED ODDS.

Class	1	owes	1-sixth of 15.
"	2	"	2-sixths of 15.
"	3	"	3-sixths of 15.
"	4	"	4-sixths of 15.
"	5	"	5-sixths of 15.
"	6	"	15.
"	7	"	15 and 1-sixth of 15.
"	8	"	15 and 2-sixths of 15.
"	9	"	15 and 3-sixths of 15.
"	10	"	15 and 4-sixths of 15.

"	16	"	30 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	17	"	30 and 5-sixths of 15.

HANDICAPS. TABLE No. 1. (Received Odds).

When two players, both in receipt of odds, meet, the player receiving the smaller odds is put back to scratch. The following table shows the point at which the other should then start. The number at the left of the horizontal columns denotes the player who goes back to scratch, those at the head of the vertical columns the player who still receives odds; and the numbers within the columns show the odds to be received by the player whose number stands at the head of the column.

This table has been calculated upon the following data:—

In the case of owed odds—

The average value of $\frac{1}{15}$ is .2158
" " " $\frac{2}{15}$ " .3929
" " " $\frac{3}{15}$ " .5188
" " " $\frac{4}{15}$ " .6448
" " " $\frac{5}{15}$ " .7975
" " Length of a game is 4.6250 strokes.

In using this table supply throughout the word "owe" before the odds specified.

When the two players in different classes above scratch meet, the inferior player shall start from scratch, and the odds owed by the superior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 2.

This table is to be used in the same way as the former, the class of the superior player being looked for in the horizontal line of figures at the top, and the class of the inferior player in the diagonal line of figures.

Example.—If class 12 (owe 30) meet class 7 (owe 15 and 1-6 of 15), the former must owe the latter the odds of 4-6 of 15.

21.—In Championship matches and handicaps by classes, as above, advantage sets shall be played throughout.

22.—The Committee may, whether appealed to by any Competitor or not, postpone the meeting or any match or part of a match if, in their opinion, the state of the weather, or of the light, or the condition of the ground, or other circumstances, render it advisable to do so. In cases of postponement, Law 25 must be strictly observed.

23.—In all Tournaments sanctioned by the Association the use of spikes longer than one-quarter of an inch is prohibited.

REGULATIONS FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC TOURNAMENTS

Colleges or clubs, members directly or indirectly of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, may, with the consent of the Association, give Interscholastic tournaments.

Players in such tournaments shall be limited to boys attending schools preparing for college.

No player shall take part who is over twenty years of age, and no player shall take part in more than one Interscholastic event in one year.

The winners of such tournaments shall be eligible to play for the Interscholastic Championship at a tournament given by the National Association, and should a winner of an Interscholastic tournament be unable to play for the Championship, the management of the Interscholastic which he should have represented shall have the power to appoint a substitute, provided that such substitute played in the said Interscholastic tournament given that year. No dues shall be required by the National Association other than the regular dues of the college or club giving the event.

Cases and Decisions.

By James Dwight.

THE following Cases and Decisions are intended to meet questions often asked at Tournaments, and also to cover points apparently not provided for in the Laws.

1. A player standing outside the court volleys the ball or catches it in his hand, and claims the stroke because the ball was certainly going out of court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. It makes no difference where he was standing. The return is presumed good until it strikes the ground outside of the court.

II. A player is struck by the ball served before it has touched the ground, he being outside of the service court. How does it count?

Decision.—The player struck loses the stroke. The service is presumably good until it strikes in the wrong court. A player cannot take the decision upon himself by stopping the ball. If it is going to be a fault, he has only to get out of the way.

III. The service is delivered before the striker-out is ready. He tries to return it and fails. Is he entitled to have it played over again?

Decision.—No. If he attempts to return the service he is deemed ready.

IV. The striker-out calls "Not ready," for a second service. The ball strikes beyond the service line, and the striker-out claims that the fact that he was not ready makes no difference, since a fault cannot be returned, and, therefore, that two faults have been served.

Decision.—The second service goes for nothing. A player cannot call "Not ready," and then have the service count, or not, as suits his interests.

V. A ball having been played over the net bounds back into the court from which it came. The player reaches over the net and plays it before it falls. Has he a right to do so?

Decision.—Yes, provided he does not touch the net. He has a right to play the ball at any time from the moment it crosses the net into his court until it touches the ground a second time

VI. A ball is played into the net; the player on the other side, thinking that the ball is coming over, strikes at it and hits the net. Who loses the stroke?

Decision.—It is simply a question of fact for the umpire to decide. If the player touched the net while the ball was still in play he loses the stroke.

VII. Can a player follow a ball over the net with his racket, provided that he hits the ball on his own side of the net?

Decision.—Yes. The only restrictions are that he shall not volley the ball until it has crossed the net, and that he shall not touch the net or any of its supports.

VIII. A player's racket slips out of his hand and flies into the net. Does he lose the stroke for hitting the net?

Decision.—Yes, if the ball be still in play. It does not matter if the racket be in a player's hand or not.

IX. A player's racket leaves his hand, but meets the ball and returns it over the net. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes. There is no law requiring a racket to be in a player's hand when the ball is returned. It would unquestionably be a good return if the racket were held against the ground by a player's feet, and the ball bounded back off of it.

X. A single match is played with a double net and inside posts. A player touches the net beyond the inside posts, and claims that he does not lose the stroke because there should be no net more than three feet outside of the court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. The net where he touches it is part of the supports of the net. He might, perhaps, have objected to the arrangement of the net before the match.

XI. A player returns the ball, and, finding that he cannot stop himself before reaching the net, jumps over it. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Law 4 requires that "the players shall stand on opposite sides of the net," and therefore the player invading his opponent's court loses the stroke.

XII. A ball passes outside the post of the net and strikes in court. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XIII. A ball going out of court hits the top of the post of the net and bounds into the opposite court.

Decision.—It is a good return.

XIV. The service or the ball in play strikes a ball lying in the court. Can it be returned?

Decision.—Yes, if it be clear to the umpire that the right ball is returned.

XV. The server claims that the striker-out must stand in the court. Is this necessary?

Decision.—No. The striker-out can stand wherever he pleases on his own side of the net.

XVI. A bystander gets in the way of a player, who fails to return the ball. May he then claim a let?

Decision.—Yes, if, in the umpire's opinion, he was prevented by an accident beyond his control. For instance, if the ropes or the seats are allowed to be so near to the court that a player is interfered with by them, the stroke should not be played again, because the ropes and seats form part of the arrangements of the ground. If, however, a spectator passes in front of those seats, or places a chair nearer than the original line, and so interferes with a player, the stroke should be played again.

XVII. A player is interfered with as above, and the umpire directs the stroke to be played again. The server had previously served a fault. He claims the right to two services.

Decision.—The fault stands. A let does not annul a previous fault.

XVIII. A return hits the umpire, or his chair or stand the player claims that the ball was going into court.

Decision.—Stroke is lost.

XIX. A player receiving fifteen, serves from the left court. His opponent claims a fault.

Decision.—It is a fault. The service starts from the right court under all circumstances.

XX. At fifteen-all the server by mistake serves from the left court, he wins the stroke and serves again a fault the mistake is then discovered. Is he entitled to the previous stroke? From which court should he serve next?

Decision.—The previous stroke stands. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service, good or not, is delivered. The next service should be from the left court, the score being thirty-fifteen, and the server has served one fault.

XXI. A player serves from the wrong court, he loses the stroke, and then claims that it was a fault Decision.—If the stroke was played in his first service it is simply a fault, but if he serves twice into the wrong court he has served two faults, and lost the stroke.

XXII. The score is five games all, and the umpire directs the players to play an advantage set. The advantage game has been won, when it is discovered that no advantage sets are to be played. What is to be done?

Decision.—The set is won at the eleventh game. It is no part of the umpire's duty to decide on the conditions of the matches.

XXIII. A player serves. He hears the umpire call, but cannot hear what he says. He knows that the only two things that the umpire should call are "fault" and "let," and that in neither case can the ball be in play. He, therefore, does not return it, only to find that the umpire has called "play." Has he any redress?

Decision.—No.

XXIV The umpire calls "fault," and then instantly changes and says "play." The striker-out fails to return the ball, and he claims he was prevented by the umpire, and also that the umpire cannot change his decision.

Decision.—The umpire should call a let and the service be taken again.

XXV. A ball drops near a line, the player appeals, and the umpire calls "play." The player misunderstands the call and lets the ball fall. He then claims to have the stroke played again.

Decision.—The stroke stands.

XXVI.—The ball strikes the ground close to a line, the scorer scores the stroke against the striker. On appeal to the linesman, the latter decided that the ball was not out. Which decision stands?

Decision.—The scorer has no right to consider a ball out until the linesman has called to that effect; therefore, the decision of the latter must be accepted. The decision of a linesman affecting his own line is final.

XXVII. A return strikes the cord running along the bottom of the net and bounds over. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XXVIII. During play a ball is thrown into court, and the ball in play strikes it or a player steps on it. May a let be claimed?

Decision.—Yes.

XXIX. The server's first service strikes his partner. Does he lose the stroke or is it a fault?

Decision.—A fault.

XXX. A player serves a fault and it is then discovered that it is his partner's service. Does the fault stand?

Decision—Yes.

XXXI. In a four-handed competition one player does not appear in time to play, and his partner claims to be allowed to play single-handed against the opposing pair. May he do so?

Decision.—No.

THE WRIGHT & DITSON TENNIS RACKETS

We do all it is possible for any one to do to make perfect Rackets. Gut, however, is sensitive to atmospheric changes, and owners of Rackets should take all the precautions they possibly can to prevent their being exposed to dampness, keeping the Racket in a waterproof cover, and in a press. Yet, no matter how careful a player may be, the natural wear on a Racket, particularly on dirt courts, often causes the strings to give way. The expense of repairing this break (as it occurs through no defect of the Racket), should be borne by the player.

GUARANTEE

WE GUARANTEE our rackets for thirty days from date of purchase. If any defect appears, please return, transportation charges prepaid, to any Wright & Ditson store, and the defect will be rectified. If the gut breaks through defect the racket will be restrung or repaired, and in the event of a broken frame due to workmanship or defect in material, the Racket will be replaced. This guarantee does not apply to Rackets weighing less than 13 ounces.

We play tennis; are in constant touch with every player of note; the best players use our rackets, which indicates very plainly why Wright & Ditson Rackets are the most practicable.

IT PAYS TO GET THE BEST.
